Attention: Akash Madiah

Dear Akash,

Enclosed are the original and one copy of the 2018 Exempt Organization returns, as follows...

2018 Form 990

2018 Form 990-T

2018 Form CO112

Be sure to review the returns prior to signing as you have final responsibility to maintain tax-related documents, including copies of previously filed tax returns, for a sufficient period of time. Generally, the internal revenue code statute of limitations period, in which items on a tax return can be questioned, is three years from the date that the return is filed. Many states have a four year statute of limitations.

We generally recommend that you keep supporting documentation for a minimum of six years; records that support basis for items in the tax return should be kept indefinitely. We also recommend that a copy of the actual tax return be kept indefinitely. We believe keeping supporting documents for a six-year period will protect you from most circumstances, including longer statute of limitations periods that some state or other regulatory agencies may impose. At the same time, we believe this policy will save you from paying unnecessary storage costs.

As a tax return preparer, we are required to give you a copy of your tax return when it is completed and maintain a copy in our files for a minimum of three years. We have and will continue to comply with this federally mandated requirement. If you have any specific questions, please feel free to contact us.

If we have provided you tax advice in connection with the preparation of your U.S. Federal tax return and associated tax planning services, this advice is not intended or written to be used by any taxpayer for the purpose of avoiding penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer by the Internal Revenue Service, and it cannot be used by any taxpayer for such purpose.

For public inspection purposes, organizations are required to provide a copy of their annual returns (Form 990) for the last three years and their exemption application (Form 1023) to anyone who requests them. You must provide the entire Form 990, and all filed schedules. However, the names and addresses of the donors may be omitted from the public inspection copy of Schedule B. For your convenience, we will provide an electronic version of the public inspection copy of your return. Please sign this copy and retain for your records.

To have evidence of timely filing, we suggest the returns be mailed by certified mail, return receipt requested.

We value our relationship with you and thank you for your trust and confidence in allowing us to serve you. If you have any questions regarding the returns or any other services that we can assist you with, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Regards,

Adam Pyzdrowski
Principal
