MGMA-ACMPE, dba Medical Group Management Association (“MGMA”) is a Colorado non-profit corporation and is the premier membership association for professional administrators and leaders of medical group practices. MGMA’s mission is to elevate the performance of medical practice leaders and their organizations by connecting members, building partnerships, setting standards for certification, advocating and improving systems that complement the delivery of affordable, quality patient care. MGMA is defined by administrator- physician leadership, driven by data, devoted to professional development and dedicated to advocacy for better healthcare policy.

MGMA and its diverse state [and local] affiliates blend together in collaboration and to form a mutually dependent and mutually beneficial force aligned with achievement of the MGMA mission. MGMA has two separate classification of State affiliates: (a) Affiliates, and (b) Partner Affiliates. The purpose of this Agreement is to define the rights, duties and benefits of MGMA and its Partner Affiliates and their respective roles as they unite in pursuit of the mission.

In consideration of their shared aspirations and the mutual promises that follow, MGMA and its Partner Affiliate _____ (referred to herein as “Affiliate”) bind themselves to each other as follows:

1. REPRESENTATIONS OF AFFILIATE

(a) Organization Status. Affiliate is incorporated and in good standing under the laws of the state of _____. Copies of Affiliate’s current Articles of Incorporation and bylaws will be made available to MGMA upon request. To the extent that Affiliate is a tax-exempt organization, its tax exemption determination letter from the Internal Revenue Service is attached to this Agreement, unless already on file.

(b) Power and Authorization. Affiliate has the full right, power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under this agreement, and the execution and delivery of this Agreement have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action.

(c) No Violation of Law. Execution of this Agreement does not violate any law, contract or other agreement by which Affiliate is bound.

(d) Pending Claims. There is no litigation or proceeding pending or, to the knowledge of any of Affiliate’s officers, threatened against Affiliate.

(e) Commitment to Mission. Affiliate is committed to MGMA’s mission and the realization of MGMA’s vision. Among its purposes for existence is pursuit of the MGMA mission as described above.

2. REPRESENTATIONS OF MGMA

MGMA represents to Affiliate that it is incorporated and in good standing under the laws of the state of Colorado. MGMA has the full right, power and authority to enter into and perform its obligations under this Agreement, and the execution and delivery of this Agreement has been duly authorized by all necessary corporate action.

3. GRANT OF STATE PARTNER AFFILIATE STATUS.

MGMA by this Agreement confers upon Affiliate the status of MGMA's State Partner Affiliate for the state of _____. The term of this Agreement, and Affiliate's status as MGMA's State Partner Affiliate for the state of _____, (hereafter referred to as "State") shall commence on the date of this Agreement and terminate on December 31 of the same year. Unless earlier terminated this Agreement shall be automatically renewed for an additional term of one year unless either party provides to the other written notice of termination at least ninety (90) days prior to the end of the initial or then-current renewal term.

4. MGMA COVENANTS.

During the term of this Agreement, MGMA will abide by the following covenants and agreements:

(a) MGMA, through its employees and agents may from time-to-time undertake research and development of meaningful, current and forward-thinking content and knowledge around its mission, and as appropriate will make such information available to Affiliate.

(b) MGMA may solicit, consider and, where appropriate, incorporate Affiliate's input and opinion on matters relating to the Affiliate relationship between MGMA and Affiliate. MGMA will create training and development opportunities for Affiliate's leadership and will create forums for Affiliate's leadership to interact with MGMA State Affiliates from other states, to enhance Affiliate's leadership, knowledge of MGMA and to develop and enhance their leadership skills.

(c) To symbolize Affiliate's commitment to the MGMA mission and vision, and to facilitate Affiliate's serving the MGMA mission in State, MGMA will confer on Affiliate certain limited rights to use the MGMA mark to identify Affiliate as MGMA State Affiliate, more particularly described below.

(d) Subject to availability, MGMA will upon request provide MGMA staff speakers – one MGMA Government Affairs staffer and one MGMA staffer, at Affiliate's State Conferences (for up to two engagements per year) in exchange for payment of the speaker's travel expenses only. Upon request, MGMA will also make available, on a mutually agreeable schedule and cost, virtual or pre-recorded programs on topics of interest.

(e) MGMA will facilitate the offering of ACMPE credit for appropriate subject matter at Affiliate's State Conferences.

(f) MGMA will provide complementary membership in MGMA for Affiliate's staff member.

(g) MGMA will encourage MGMA members within the state to become members of Affiliate and refrain from any actions or conduct which would tend to discourage membership in Affiliate.

(h) MGMA will make available to Affiliate data respecting MGMA's members in State, in accordance with the provisions of Sections 6 and 7 of this Agreement, as well as any other restrictions MGMA may develop from time to time, provided Affiliate makes available to MGMA the same data respecting Affiliate's members.

(i) MGMA will work with participating Affiliates on a staff salary questionnaire utilizing the National MGMA survey participation portal and using results from data submitted to that questionnaire, MGMA will develop state specific reports deployed in DataDive platform that participating Affiliates will be able to access. In lieu of participating with MGMA in producing such State-specific data, Affiliate, as a Partner Affiliate, may elect, by written notice to MGMA, to conduct its own surveys within its State, under Affiliate's name and utilizing the MGMA name and trademarks in accordance with the rights set forth in this Agreement, provided that Affiliate follows the protocol and parameters for such independent State surveys established annually by MGMA, including the time frames for the survey distribution and the period for which the survey data is collected. Failure to conduct a State survey in compliance with those protocol and parameters will be grounds for terminating Affiliate's right to undertake its own State surveys.

(j) MGMA will allow Affiliate to republish (subject to approved attribution) up to two articles from MGMA publications per quarter.

(k) MGMA will allow Affiliate to post the Washington Connection behind the member wall on its website and/or to forward Washington Connection to Affiliate's members by email.

(m) MGMA will provide notification to Affiliate of national conference dates and locations no less than twelve months in advance of each conference.

(n) MGMA will participate with Affiliate in a dual membership program which will allow persons who are interested in membership to obtain one dual membership covering MGMA and Affiliate, based on membership categories and pricing provided by both parties, with such discounts in pricing as may be available by agreement of Affiliate and MGMA. The dual membership program shall be promoted by both parties. MGMA shall be responsible for developing a website linkage for enrolling as a dual member, collection of the appropriate fees for the membership categories selected and dividing the payments received between MGMA and Affiliate as they may agree for each annual program.

5. AFFILIATE COVENANTS.

During the term of this Agreement, Affiliate will abide by the following covenants and agreements:

(a) Affiliate shall operate at all times in full compliance with all applicable statutes, laws, regulations, rules and other legal standards governing its performance. (b) Affiliate understands that MGMA publishes and makes available various content to its members and affiliates. Affiliate understands and agrees that it may not copy, reproduce or distribute any of MGMA's materials, such as newsletters, articles, survey tools and assessments, or other content, without first obtaining MGMA's written consent.

(c) Affiliate shall refrain from adopting policies or taking actions inconsistent with or contrary to MGMA's stated mission.

(d) Affiliate shall support and arrange for at least one of its leadership to participate in MGMA-sponsored annual State Leadership Conference, as well as facilitate attendance by its leadership at other MGMA sponsored training and development opportunities or peer group leadership forums.

(e) Affiliate shall participate with MGMA in a dual membership enrollment, enabling a person who is both an MGMA and an Affiliate member to register once and receive dual membership in both organizations in the member classification for which the person is qualified. Affiliate hereby authorizes MGMA to bill and collect for the dual membership fee. The dual membership fee and the division between MGMA and Affiliate of the dual membership fee shall be determined by MGMA in consultation with Affiliate. MGMA and Affiliate shall only register members who reside in Affiliate's State through the dual membership program and will maintain a link on its website to the registration site operated by MGMA.

(f) Affiliate shall cause its President (or similar senior executive officer) and its President Elect (or similarly designated successor to its senior executive officer) to maintain membership in MGMA and shall encourage other members of its governing board to be members of MGMA.

(g) Affiliate agrees that it will not schedule a face-to-face conference within 30 days before or after an MGMA face-to-face conference that is scheduled to be held in that Affiliate state. To avoid conflict between Affiliate's face-to-face or virtual conferences and MGMA face-to-face or virtual conferences, Affiliate also agrees to coordinate the scheduling of its conferences by communicating with MGMA the dates being considered during the scheduling process and immediately notifying MGMA upon finalizing its conference date(s) and location(s).

(h) Affiliate will encourage members within State to participate in the dual membership program and become members of MGMA, and Affiliate shall refrain from any actions or conduct which would tend to discourage membership in MGMA.

(i) Affiliate shall provide a complimentary non-voting membership for one (1) MGMA staff person.

(j) Subject to the terms stated in Sections 7 and 8 below, Affiliate will make available to MGMA, on a reciprocal basis, data Affiliate has collected relating to Affiliate's members in State.

(k) Affiliate shall encourage/facilitate Affiliate's members' participation in MGMA surveys conducted within State. Affiliate shall not conduct surveys within its State, under the Affiliate's name or utilizing the MGMA name or trademarks in connection with any such survey, which surveys cover subject matter and data which is included in the MGMA national surveys; provided that as a Partner Affiliate, Affiliate may conduct surveys in accordance with the provisions of Section 3(i) herein.

(l) Affiliate shall not use any MGMA survey or other data product or sell, license or transfer to any third party any MGMA survey or other data product except as expressly stated in terms of use accompanying the survey or data product or as otherwise allowed by MGMA's express written permission.

(m) Affiliate shall encourage its members to promote the value of MGMA's professional development programs, including the ACMPE designation, using messaging developed by MGMA delivered in accordance with MGMA's messaging protocols.

(n) Affiliate shall comply with MGMA's Affiliate Baseline Reporting Requirements as stated from time to time, and report compliance annually to MGMA in the form required by MGMA. MGMA's current Affiliate Baseline Reporting Requirements are attached hereto as Schedule B.

(o) Affiliate shall comply with MGMA's Core Benefits Requirements for MGMA Affiliates, as stated from time to time, and report compliance with these Requirements annually to MGMA. MGMA's current Core Benefit Requirements for MGMA Affiliates are attached hereto as Schedule C.

(p) Affiliate shall consider application to the Internal Revenue Service for status as a Section 501(c)(6) organization. Affiliate shall not be required to make application for Section 501(c)(6) status but is strongly encouraged to do so. If Affiliate is a tax-exempt organization, it will comply with all requirements necessary to maintain its tax-exempt status.

(q) Affiliate may engage in federal, state and local advocacy. Affiliate shall not be required to support or advocate MGMA's policy positions but, in view of the need to maintain consistent messaging under the MGMA logo, Affiliate shall avoid publicly challenging MGMA's policy positions or advocating opposing policy positions under the MGMA logo and shall, when advocating policy positions opposed to MGMA's position, inform its audience that the views expressed are those of Affiliate – not MGMA.

(r) Affiliate shall be free to set its own agenda for activities which it deems best serve its mission and to create and provide benefits which it believes best serve its members; provided however, that Affiliate's engagement in or support of activities outside the MGMA mission shall in no case conflict with or detract from MGMA's mission, activities or initiatives or otherwise divide Affiliate's and Affiliate's members' loyalty to MGMA.

(s) Affiliate may engage in commercial activity to support its mission and the MGMA mission. However, Affiliate understands and agrees that it may not engage in any directly competitive activities with MGMA without first obtaining MGMA's written consent. For example (and without limitation), Affiliate may not resell MGMA products, content or data without first obtaining MGMA's written consent.

(c) Representations and Warranties Regarding List Exchange. Each of MGMA and Affiliate represents and warrants to the other that it has the authority and legal right to disclose and share such membership data as it shares from time to time with the other party and that doing so does not violate any law, regulation, rule or order or any contract, agreement or policy to which it is subject or by which it is bound and that its membership data delivered to the List Exchange was collected lawfully and in accordance with all applicable legal, contractual and internal privacy and other policies.

15. MISCELLANEOUS

(a) Dispute Resolution. It is agreed that in the event any controversy or claim arises out of or in relation to this Agreement or with respect to a breach hereof, the parties shall first endeavor in good faith to resolve the matter amicably through discussions among themselves. If the parties cannot so agree among themselves, in addition to their respective rights hereunder, they agree to following dispute resolution provisions. Either party may request in writing from the other confidential mediation by a mutually acceptable third party. If the parties cannot agree on such a person within five (5) business days after the written request for mediation is given or, within thirty (30) business days following engagement of a mediator the parties remain in disagreement, then either party may submit all controversies, claims and disputes arising from this Agreement to confidential binding arbitration in the county of Arapahoe, Colorado pursuant to the commercial arbitration rules of the American Arbitration Association then in force, or pursuant to such other rules or procedures to which the parties may agree in writing. Each party shall bear its own costs in any mediation proceeding. In any arbitration proceeding, the prevailing party shall be entitled to receive from the non-prevailing party compensation for its attorneys’ fees, expert witness fees and any other out of pocket expenses reasonably associated with any such arbitration proceeding. Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party shall have the right to seek injunctive relief in federal or state court pending invocation or conclusion of the noted dispute resolution process to preserve the status quo or if an act or omission of the other party threatens to cause immediate, irreparable harm.

(b) Relationship to the Parties. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to create a partnership, joint venture, or agency between MGMA and Affiliate. The relationship is one of independent contractors. Neither party is liable for the debts, liabilities or obligations of the other, nor may either party incur or enter into any debts or liabilities on behalf of the other. Nothing in this Agreement is intended to imply that MGMA is doing business in the state or geographical locality of Affiliate, and no obligations of MGMA pursuant to this Agreement shall require MGMA to conduct business in such locality.

(c) Assignment. The licenses and all rights and duties granted hereunder are personal to Affiliate and shall not be assigned by Affiliate or by operation of law, without MGMA’s prior written consent. Without limiting the foregoing, this Agreement will fully bind and inure to the benefit of each party and its respective successors and assigns.

(d) Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado.

(e) Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including MGMA’s Principles of Alliance and Intellectual Property Policy incorporated by reference and Schedules A, B and C attached hereto) constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior and existing agreements and between Affiliate and MGMA. No amendments or modifications of this Agreement shall be valid unless evidenced in writing and signed by or on behalf of both parties to the Agreement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, updates or changes made by MGMA to extrinsic documents incorporated herein by reference shall not be deemed an amendment or modification of this Agreement.

This Agreement may be executed by facsimile signatures.

(h) Waiver. Waiver of any breach of any provision of this Agreement shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any other prior, subsequent or continuing breach of the same provision of this Agreement.

(i) Severability. If any provision of this Agreement shall, for any reason, be held invalid or illegal in any respect, such inability or illegality shall not affect the validity or the illegality of this Agreement itself, and there shall be substituted for the affected provision, a valid and enforceable provision as similar as possible to the affected provision. - b. Affiliate hereby warrants that any goods and services provided by it in connection with the MGMA Trademarks shall be of good quality, free of defects in design, materials, workmanship and shall comply with all applicable laws, safety standards, and MGMA's quality standards. Affiliate agrees to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless MGMA, its agents, officers, directors and employees from and against any and all loss and expense arising out of Affiliate's breach of this Agreement or any of Affiliate's warranties contained herein.

(k) Injunctive Relief. Affiliate acknowledges that any breach of the trademark or confidentiality obligations herein will reduce the value of the MGMA Trademarks and/or MGMA's Confidential Information. Affiliate further acknowledges that it would be difficult to accurately measure damages and injury to MGMA from any such breach by Affiliate or its agents and that damages alone would not be an adequate remedy. Accordingly, in addition to any other rights it may have at law or in equity, MGMA shall be entitled to injunctive relief if Affiliate or its agents breach any of the trademark or confidentiality provisions of this Agreement. Affiliate hereby expressly waives: (i) the defense that a remedy in damages will be adequate; (ii) any bond requirement in an action for injunctive relief; and (iii) any requirement to show actual damages in an action for injunctive relief.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, this Agreement has been executed by the parties effective as of the day and year first above written.
